Clever Games Stars Publishing Guidelines

Introduction

Clever Games Stars is a publishing label of Clever Games designed for third-party developers to find a publisher and distributor of their video game as a way to save costs. Follow these rules and you'll have your game sold by Clever Games Stars in no time!

Rules

1. Submit your game for review on maxiandrew's deviantART page and select 'Send a Note'. Then, give specific information about the game in question (such as the premise of the game, its genre and target demographic, its age rating, the specific content in the game (violence, language, sex, etc.), and the platform of choice). This is in case the game is made for the Game-Fi platform where detailed information about the game are required for it to be on the platform.
2. These are the platforms that Clever Games Stars can publish your game on: PlayStation 4, PlayStation 3, Xbox One, Xbox 360, Wii, Wii U, Nintendo Switch, Nintendo 3DS, Game-Fi Phase Two, Game-Fi X3, Game-Fi Portable Phase Two, Kin, Kin Pocket, PC, iOS, Android
3. Ones your game is approved for publishing, you'll need to send the cover art and the game's logo before your game can be printed and/or sold to the market.
4. Clever Games Stars will do all the duties of putting the cover on your game and doing the game's boot-up sequence (your game company logo is required)

Conclusion

Congratulations! Now you know how you can get your games published by Clever Games Stars to be played by the whole world! Now go out there and show us your games! Go on. We're all ears.
